Abstract Review

Yes, I am interested in reviewing abstracts for SLEEP 2021, 35th Annual Meeting of the Associated Professional Sleep Societies, LLC. I understand that the review process takes place during the holiday season (December 2020 – early January 2021).

Abstract Review Categories

The SLEEP 2021 abstract categories are first divided between “Basic and Translational Sleep and Circadian Science” and “Clinical Sleep Science and Practice,” then further divided into subcategories. Abstract reviewers may select subcategories within both categories.

Please indicate which abstract categories you feel qualified to review below.

A. Basic and Translational Sleep and Circadian Science

- Mechanisms of sleep and circadian disorders
- Cell and molecular biology and genetics
- Circadian rhythms mechanisms and physiology
- Sleep and circadian biomarkers
- Neurobiology
